

Elfyn honoured 20 years after dad Gwyndaf

Published: 27th October 2016

Author: Robin Roberts

Online version: <http://www.wheelswithinwales.uk/elfyn-honoured-20-years-after-dad-gwyndaf/>

The Welsh Motoring Writers group has honoured two outstanding individuals for their achievements in Wales.

The Tom Pryce Memorial Trophy recognises the achievements of Rally Driver Elfyn Evans who won this year's British Rally Championship title.

Elfyn and Gwyndaf celebrate 20 years landmark and share Tom Pryce Memorial Trophy

His father Gwyndaf was awarded WMW's inaugural Tom Pryce Trophy in 1996 having won the BRC that year and now his son Elfyn, exactly two decades later, has replicated the feat.

The Automotive Achievement Award went to Riversimple of Llandrindod Wells for the wheels within wales putting you in the driving seat

www.wheelswithinwales.uk radically innovative Rasa lightweight hydrogen-powered prototype car. Road-legal and built for full European Type Approval, it can cover 300 miles on 1.5kg of Hydrogen and has the lowest “well-to-wheel” carbon emissions of any vehicle.