

Newslines 31 August

Published: 31st August 2018

Author: Robin Roberts

Online version: <http://www.wheelswithinwales.uk/newslines-31-august/>

Aston Martin is preparing to sell shares in its business, which includes the new car assembly plant in St Athan, west of Cardiff.

After years of sustained losses, Aston Martin is expected to float on the London Stock Exchange in a few weeks and analysts say it could be valued at £5 Billion.

Cardiff and Vale College is offering a series of auto-repair and maintenance courses for light and heavy vehicles, completely free of charge.

The 25 and 30 weeks courses are available by contacting info@cavc.ac.uk.

All Peugeot, Citroen, DS, Opel and Vauxhall cars meet the new WLTP test procedures.

It is the first car group to pass its entire range through the tougher and more realistic emissions and consumption test but some makers are struggling and delaying new models reaching showrooms.

The Nissan Navara N-Guard is a tough and stylish new special version of the brand's award-winning pickup.

Available as Double Cab with 2.3 dCi 190 PS engine, the model is priced starting from £28,075.00 Basic Retail exc. VAT with the Manual gearbox, and £29,525.00 Basic Retail exc. VAT for the Automatic gearbox.