

New station arriving in Mid-Wales

Published: 13th January 2020

Author: Robin Roberts

Online version: <https://www.wheelswithinwales.uk/new-station-arriving-in-mid-wales/>

A new railway station is arriving in Wales this year.

The £8M scheme will see a new stop on the Aberystwyth to Shrewsbury line at Bow Street.

The first station was axed in the 1965 cull of the network but after an extensive local campaign to improve rail links and the decision by Welsh Government to invest in public transport, the new halt will see construction work begin this week with completion at the end of this year.