Car sales in Wales last month saw the Toyota Aygo X the best seller for the first time as it stood out in a declining market.

While Ford never figured in the UK top ten last month it was again notching up double success in Wales with Kuga and Puma in the top ten, revealed by the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders.

Total Welsh registrations exceeded 4,000 in July but that was drop of nearly 11% over July 2021, and the sharpest decline on mainland Britain.
