

Tradelines 8 January

Published: 8th January 2020

Author: Robin Roberts

Online version: <https://www.wheelswithinwales.uk/tradelines-8-january/>

Eligible customers from 19 years of age can purchase Citroën's stylish C1 city car with one year's free insurance.

The offer, available on 'Feel', 'Flair', 'Urban Ride' and 'Origins' trim levels, also incorporates hatchback and 'Airscape' body styles and the offer is available on retail cash purchases and Personal Contract Purchase.

The Dacia SE Twenty special editions have been added to the company's UK range for delivery from March.

External badges and decals are matched by distinctive mesh fabric seat covers and interior embellishments from £11,300 for the Sandero Stepway, £12,800 for the Logan and £15,645 for the Duster version of the SE Twenty series.

A new generation of Porsche models will be able to see through fog.

Porsche is working with Israeli startup TriEye to utilise their short-wave infra-red sensors and cameras as part of advanced systems.

Volvo Cars annual sales last year smashed through the 700,000 ceiling after 93 years business.

It enjoyed a 9.8% increase over 2018 with 705,452 registrations worldwide with a huge increase in December led by SUV demand in China.

The European Automobile Manufacturers' Association kicks off the new year with Ferrari becoming its newest member company.

With the addition of the Italian luxury car maker, ACEA now counts 16 members: BMW Group, CNH Industrial, DAF Trucks, Daimler, Ferrari, Fiat Chrysler Automobiles, Ford of Europe, Hyundai Motor Europe, Jaguar Land Rover, PSA Group, Renault Group, Toyota Motor Europe, Volkswagen Group, Volvo Cars, and Volvo Group.